The persuasive mode of writing finds its early realizations in the Histories of the Greek historian Herodotus. The essays of Herodotus are controversial in nature as they use polemic or a conflicting style to support his arguments. In fact, in many ways, the structure, style, rhetoric and format of a persuasive piece of prose is very similar to that of an argumentative one.

Narrative vs Persuasive Essays - Studiosity

Persuasion essays are similar to discussion essays in that you will present your arguments on a topic. However, instead of presenting a balanced view considering both sides, a persuasion essay will focus on one side. To persuade means to convince someone that a particular opinion is the correct one, and so your task when writing a persuasion essay is to convince the reader that your view of the situation is correct.
